Thurs., April 23: Albuquerque, NM (B) Seeing the Grand Canyon is an awesome sight. As we leave the area, we will head south back to Flagstaff, then go on Hwy 40 through Winslow, AZ, and Holbrook and Gallup, NM. Albuquerque, NM, is our overnight. New Mexico was the 47th state to enter the United States in 1912. Albuquerque is New Mexico's largest city and sits high in the desert, and is known for selling Native American handicrafts, historic adobe buildings, and churches. Old Town Albuquerque dates to the city's 1706 founding as a Spanish Colony.

Fri., April 24: Colorado Springs, CO (B) Departing Albuquerque we continue to Santa Fe, NM, which sits at the foothills of the southern Rocky Mountains. This capital city is known for its Pueblo-style architecture and was founded as a Spanish Colony in 1610. Santa Fe means "holy faith" in Spanish. And then we will take Hwy 25 to Colorado. In the early days small amounts of gold were found in various streams in Colorado. Many gold seekers streamed to the area over the years. This helped attract people to Colorado. We will make meal and comfort stops along the way to Colorado Springs, CO. Here we will stop at the Barry Goldwater Visitor's Center of the Air Force Academy to learn more of the life of the cadets and history of the Academy. The Chapel is closed for renovations, but you can walk to it to enjoy its stature here at the Academy. Our lodging will be here in Colorado Springs, CO, with a free evening.

Sat., April 25: Columbus, NE (B, D) After breakfast, we will soon see the skyline of Denver, Colorado's largest city and capital, located in the South Platte River Valley near the foothills of the Rocky Mountains. Denver was founded in 1858 as a gold mining town. Many ski resorts are in the mountains of the Denver area, and is known as the "Mile High City." As we continue homeward, we will travel on 76 to Hwy 80 to North Platte, NE, then up to Columbus, NE, for the night. We will enjoy an included Farewell Meal here tonight.

Sun., April 26: Home (B) It has been an exciting tour visiting the beautiful mountain areas of Utah, Nevada, New Mexico, and Colorado these past days, plus a relaxing few days in Las Vegas.
