Tues., April 14: Schaumburg, IL We set off on this exciting tour that will explore our nation's capital-Washington, DC! Get to know your fellow traveling companions as we make our way to the Schaumburg, IL, area of Chicago.

Wed., April 15: Monroeville, PA (B) We continue eastward today enjoying the countryside as we drive through Indiana and Ohio to Pennsylvania. We will be spending the night in Monroeville, PA.

Thurs., April 16: Gettysburg, PA (B, D) This morning we drive through more of scenic Pennsylvania on our way to Gettysburg, PA. Upon arrival we'll have lunch on own in downtown Gettysburg. Then, at the Gettysburg Battlefield we'll start at the Visitor's Center & Museum to familiarize ourselves with the history here. A local guide will then meet us for a guided tour of the Gettysburg Battlefield. The bloodiest and most decisive battle of the Civil War was fought here on July 1, 2, & 3, 1863, resulting in 50,000 casualties. Learn of the important part Lincoln had here too, in giving the Gettysburg Address. Our overnight will be spent in Gettysburg. Tonight we get together for a delicious included meal.

Fri., April 17: Washington, DC (B) After breakfast we depart for Washington, DC. A local DC tour guide will join us for the day, taking us around DC. We start at the impressive Washington National Cathedral, which took 83 years to complete and contains over 215 stained glass windows, and many other amazing features. Then follow Embassy Row to the National Mall area. Next is the White House Visitor's Center and a picture stop at the White House. At the Tidal Basin area we'll see the Jefferson Memorial, where the bronze statue of Thomas Jefferson is surrounded by the beautiful white pillars, and a domed roof. The area is surrounded by 3,400 cherry trees which were a gift from Japan. Then at the Lincoln Memorial, you'll find the marble statue of our 16th President, as he sits in contemplation, overlooking the Reflection Pond. The Vietnam Memorial is next, where you'll find more 58,000 names etched into the long black wall in commemoration of those that gave their lives in service to our country. Nearby, the statues that seem to come to life at the Korean War Memorial stand in tribute to the veterans. Then we will go to our hotel for a 3-night stay at the Key Bridge Marriott in Arlington, VA. The evening is on your own.

Sat., April 18: Washington, DC (B) We have a full day in Washington, DC, today, starting with time at Ford's Theatre, the historic theatre where Abraham Lincoln was assassinated in 1865. Tour the Theatre, explore the museum, watch the One Destiny play, and walk through the Petersen House. Next we'll go to Capitol Hill and tour the U.S. Capitol Building. Here we will go into the Visitor's Center and a guide will take us on a tour of the building plus see a movie presentation. Lunch is on own at the cafeteria here. Then, at the Museum of the Bible, which opened in 2017, wander through the different floors learning more about the Bible. Our last stop is at the World War II Memorial where the pillars stand tall and surround the fountain pond in honor of the Armed Forces at that time. Later, we'll eat at Union Station, and do a Night Light Driving Tour of DC. This is a beautiful way of sightseeing some of the buildings lit up at night. Then return to our hotel for the night.

(B=Breakfast; L=Lunch; D=Dinner included that day)

Sun., April 19: Washington, DC (B) Our day starts out at the U.S. Marine Corps War Memorial (aka Iwo Jima Memorial). Then at the Arlington Cemetery you will see the gravesites of the Kennedy's, the Changing of the Guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and the Robert E. Lee House. In the Cemetery, row upon row of simple markers remind us of the true cost of war, peace and freedom. Next we'll stop at the National Museum of American History, that collects and preserves more than 3 million artifacts. Lunch is on your own here in the cafeteria. Then we'll visit the FDR Memorial, where you'll find the bronze statue of FDR & his Scottish terrier, a manmade waterfall, and more with a view of the Washington Monument across the way. A walk along the Tidal Basin takes us to the Martin Luther King, Jr Memorial, where the 30-foot tall memorial has been carved out of granite and stands tall as a tribute to his struggle for freedom, equality and justice, and is one of the newest memorials to be added, as it was dedicated in 2011. Then we go to the National Museum of Air & Space where you'll find the 1903 Wright Flyer, the Spirit of St Louis, and even the Apollo 11 Command Module - the Columbia, and much more. Following the museum, we're off to the Kennedy Center, to walk through this historic building. Then return for our last night in DC.

Mon., April 20: Charlottesville, VA (B, D) This morning we will walk in the footsteps of our first president and better understand the life and times of George & Martha Washington at Mount Vernon, their 18th century estate. We will tour the house and ground and spend time at the Visitor's Center. They have a great book store here and you can also get a cup of coffee. About an hours drive takes us to historic Fredericksburg, VA, known for its Colonial and Civil War history, and is the home of four battlefields. Fredericksburg is amongst the most famous battles of the Civil War. We will learn more of this at the Visitors Center where you can watch a movie, see exhibits, and take a walk down Sunken Road which is the scene of the heaviest fighting. Return to the Visitors Center by way of the National Cemetery where over 15,000 Union soldiers are buried. We will have some free time here, then depart for Charlottesville, VA. After checking in to our lodging we will go out for an included meal.

Tues., April 21: Charleston, WV (B, L) This morning we will go to Monticello (pronounced Mont-eh-chello), the beautiful mountain top plantation and gardens of Thomas Jefferson, who, at the age of 26 he inherited the land from his father. Jefferson was the third U.S. President and author of the Declaration of Independence. He was also an accomplished inventor. After our tour of Monticello and the gardens, we will go a short ways down the hill to Michie Tavern, which is an historic period restaurant serving southern fare food. Lunch is included here at the Tavern. We will then depart the area, viewing beautiful scenery as we travel through the Shenandoah Valley, and along the Blue Ridge Mountains of the Appalachian Range, to Covington, VA. After a coffee stop here, we continue on to Charleston, West Virginia's riverfront capital city. Our lodging is here Charleston, WV, with a free evening.

Wed., April 22: Florence, KY, area (B, L) We will depart Charleston and soon enter Kentucky, which is known for their horse farms and horse racing. We will travel through Lexington, KY, the horse capital of the World, viewing the many beautiful farms, as we continue north to Williamstown, KY. Around noon we will arrive at the Ark Encounter. Bigger than imagination—experience Bible history at the life-size Noah's Ark, built according to the dimensions given in the Bible. It is 510 feet long, 85 feet wide, and 51 feet high. It opened in 2016, and is based on the Genesis flood Bible story of Noah and his family, and the building of the Ark. Lunch is included while here. Our lodging will be in the Florence, KY, area this evening.

Thurs., April 23: Janesville, WI (B) We will continue north to Indiana with a stop at the Indianapolis Speedway. Comfort and meal stops will be made along the way to our overnight in Janesville, WI.

Fri., April 24: Home (B) Homeward bound today. Relax and enjoy this last day of the tour with your new traveling friends, reminiscing about all the scenery, history, and sites we've done the last 11 days. We'll arrive home early evening. Thank you for traveling with Utopia Tours.
